CERETTO BLANGÈ ARNEIS 2014

Langhe, Italy

11 / 44

The "Blangè" vineyard, located on the hillsides of Vezza d'Alba, was purchased in 1985 with the sole purpose of planting it with the Arneis grape.

The name of the wine is derived from the French word "boulangier," or baker, as legend has it that this is where Napoleon's bakers made their camp when his armies ventured into the area. Aromas of pears, apple blossoms, beeswax.

The palate offers soft and round, nutty flavors overlaying subtle minerality..

pairing : burrata mozzarella caprese, spaghetti with clams
